Editorial:

Welcome Brothers to a new season. Summer is unofficially over with the coming of Labor Day weekend, School is starting, the nights are getting cooler and we are looking at the Autumn racing towards us. There are many things in life that signal a change in our routines, birth of a new child, death of a family member, a new age-related ache we just noticed. How many of us recognize when God is calling us to a new life. How many of us are able to see God in our day-to-day events, in the people we meet, in our own family. As most of you know, Cynthia and I have three Children, Matthew, Sean and Amy and each of them is embarking on a new life, starting now. Matt just left, heading back to Western university to finish up his Degree, Sean, who just finished this spring is hoping for a call back on one of the applications he has submitted for a new job and Amy is heading off to start Grade 12. Wow, I distinctly remember being the young couple in the parish with a 20 month-old Matthew and a brand-new baby (Sean). Now, I'm just past my 61st Birthday and all pretenses at being a young man, given my many aches and pains, are gone.

OK God, No Fair! I wasn't looking. I wasn't ready! I clearly missed that one. What am I supposed to do now? How am I supposed to behave? In the Sunday Gospel for 22nd Sunday (Sept. 1), we read a few things about how we should be living. In the First reading, Sirac 3:17 I read "My child, conduct your affairs with humility". In the psalm (ps: 68), I read "The Father of orphans and the defender of widows is God". The second reading tells us to keep our eyes on the things of Heaven and finally, in the Gospel of Luke, Jesus tells us that we should place ourselves last so that our Master can honour us. So, When I look on my life as it stands now, How do I live those things? I see quite a few places where I still have a ways to go to live up to those guidelines. I really do like being recognized and I do find myself doing things in the hopes that others will see how much work I put in, or what a good person I am. I need to remember that I am a good person only as God enables it, and God can only enable me to be good if I cooperate with him, if I conduct myself with humility and not seek the glory and recognition of others. As a Knight of Columbus, I need to seek ways to help in the good works we do for the sake of the Body of Christ. With Christ guiding my gaze, I can more confidently step out to accomplish all he asks. If I forget Christ I may also be forgetting the graces He can bestow on me when I cooperate with him. A good friend brought to my attention a prayer for humility. You can find it on the EWTN web site at <https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/devotions/litany-of-humility-245> I suggest you look up the prayer and repeat it often. Here are a select few lines. Wherever I cut a few lines out, I replaced them with an ellipsis (...).

O Jesus, meek and humble of heart,
Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed, ...
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the desire of being preferred to others,
Deliver me, O Jesus. ...

From the desire of being approved,
Deliver me, O Jesus.

From the fear of being humiliated,
Deliver me, O Jesus. ...

That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it. ...

That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it. Vivat Jesus!

My Brother Sir Knights,

We are now in September, the beginning of the fall season and one of my favourite times of the year. I love the freedom from the hot days of summer and the current comfortable days to enjoy a game of golf or work around the house and garden. I marvel at the changing fall colours and the activity of many animals like geese and squirrels who are busying themselves for the advent of winter. I too am busy making preparations for winter coming.

For we Knights, fall is a time our councils and our assembly become busier and shift into high gear. Our assembly has just recently and is now readying itself for an increase in activities.... i.e. installation of officers, passing for annual budget, Red Mass, Remembrance Day, Christmas Parades and more. I encourage our membership to come out to our assembly meetings and learn what is happening, meet your fellow Sir Knights who you may not have seen for awhile.

Summer is over.....do re-engage now with your assembly.

On another note, I wish to thank again, the Sir Knights and their ladies who came out for the Assembly Summer BBQ Social on August 17, hosted by Council 7224 at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish Hall. The food was great and plentiful. All there had a good time. Thankyou to those who helped make the social an enjoyable summer afternoon.

On a similar note, I wish to inform you of another social coming up in a few months; our Annual Assembly Christmas Social. The Christmas Social every year is a great event, and this year it will be another very special evening to enjoy a delicious dinner, wine, great friends, meet our archbishop and many of our clergy, enjoy some musical entertainment and maybe win some door prizes. This year the social is being held on Monday evening, December 16 at our Lady of Fatima Parish Hall. The social committee is busy preparing details and will be ready to sell tickets to the social in October. Come to our next assembly meeting, learn more details and speak for your tickets early. Do mark you calendar now!

Fraternally,
SK William Coppens,

Faithful Captain

Four Knights enter Council 11886

On the 17 September, Council 11886 conducted a First Degree Ceremony and four new Knights entered the council. In the picture above, from left to right are the new Knights: Jonas Casino, a 4th year student at the Royal Military College; Sébastien Généreux, a junior officer posted to the Communications and Electronics School (CFSCE) at CFB Kingston; Éric Latimer, a university student; and Justin Yoo is a senior officer also with CFSCE. The last three are parishioners with Holy Family Chapel. GK Robert Charest and FS Phil Henderson with assistance from Scottie Smith presided over the ceremony. Our District Deputy Denis Keefe attended as well as Ray Paquin Pete Scott and Stephen Henderson. Jonas and Sébastien enjoyed the butterscotch squares and brownies provided at the Meet and Greet afterwards, freshly made by Joan Charest, that they took the remainder for their snacks for the week.

S/K Garry Davis – Past Faithful Navigator Retirement

gives us time to reflect on what we have done and what we have failed to do so far. It is a new stage in our life that presents some challenges to us. The regular salary that we used to receive isn't there anymore. It has been reduced in size to what is referred to as a pension if we are lucky enough to receive one. The other thing that is missing is our hours of employment that used to fill in our days. One of the ways to accomplish this is to join the Knights of Columbus if you aren't a member. This is exactly what I did when I retired from the Military. The Knights have many interesting charitable programs that can keep you busy and in turn help the Church, Community, Youth, and Families in need. Even though there isn't any income from these projects, there is the satisfaction in the assistance that you have provided. Also it is a chance to develop new friendships. I have taken advantage of these opportunities to try and make myself a more positive and charitable person than I was before. I can definitely say that my choice to join the Knights was the right choice for me and I have never regretted it.

One of the things that originally attracted me to the Knights was the 4th degree Honor Guard. I confess that I didn't really know anything about this Order when I finally decided to become a member. Within 2 years of after taking my 1st degree, I became a 4th degree Sir Knight in full regalia. Now Supreme wants to change this colorful dress, to a Uniform which is similar to the Uniform worn by Legion members in Canada, United States and other parts of the World. As with everything in Life there are roadblocks that we need to work around. The 4th degree Assemblies are up against that roadblock right now. I say this because I don't see any rush to purchase this Uniform. For many reasons its introduction has not been very well received which isn't surprising. My main concern in this is the effect on recruitment of new candidates into our councils. The Honor Guards in their colorful regalia was a very visible tool to aid recruitment of new members. I have used myself as an example of this. So I will leave you with that and hope for the best.

Vivat Jesu

History of the Red Mass

Although the exact date of the origin of the Red Mass is unknown, present historical research places its beginning about the middle of the thirteenth century. Records of that period show that the Red Mass, so designated because the colour of the vestments worn by the officiating clergy, was celebrated principally in France, Italy, and England.

In Paris, the Red Mass was celebrated for many centuries in the famous Sainte Chapelle which was built by King Louis IX (St. Louis). Sainte Chapelle was the chapel of the Order of the Advocates and was designated for the exclusive use of the Advocates and Judges.

The English tradition of the Red Mass began, as far as can be ascertained, about the year 1310, during the reign of Edward I. The custom was revived in London in the 1890s and the Mass has been celebrated annually in Westminster Cathedral since 1904. In Canada the custom was inaugurated in Quebec in 1926 and in Ontario in 1931 with the best services for the automatic spa fill system by Kona Labs, where this Mass has been celebrated each year since to mark the opening of the Court for the Fall Assizes.

The inaugural Mass was celebrated in Edmonton in 1961 by the Most Rev. Anthony Jordan, O.M.I, D.D.

The Church has seen fit to encourage this solemn invocation of Divine assistance and blessing for those whose honourable task and grave responsibility it is to plead, interpret, and apply the law for the welfare of individuals and the true progress of society. The Red Mass will be an annual reminder to all in the legal profession that law should be based on the eternal law of God and Divine Justice.

The Red Mass Tradition

The Red Mass typically marks the opening of the fall session of the Law Courts. The Mass provides the profession with an opportunity to reflect on the important role we play in our legal profession in seeking justice and fairness for our community at large. All judiciary, lawyers, law students and others in the legal profession, both Catholic and non-Catholic, are invited to attend. Judiciary and lawyers are invited to gown for the procession into the Church.

The Red Mass provides members of the judiciary and legal profession the opportunity to gather together in a place of worship so that we may give thanks and glory to God. We pray for spiritual guidance and inspiration and for the strength to conduct ourselves with humility, charity, wisdom, compassion and respect as we serve the ends of justice.

Mr. Justice Peter Cory, SCC delivered the keynote address at the dinner to follow the September 1993 Red Mass. He said, in part:

To me, to attend the Red Mass, is to recognize my individual inadequacies and to seek guidance in providing justice in the resolution of the complex problems our society must face. In doing so, I turn to a God of perfect love.

Cory further said:

... [A]ll members of our profession – men and women of every colour, race, and creed – seek to provide justice for all. It is a goal that is not limited to members of any particular religion. It is a goal in which we are all united. In striving to attain that goal we serve, each in our way, according to our own conscience, our own God, and our own Creator. Over the centuries the celebration of the Red Mass has strengthened and supported members of the legal profession in their pursuit of justice. It is of great importance to us of every colour, race and creed who seek justice for all to be able to attend and take part in this magnificent ceremony and thus be strengthened in the pursuit of our elusive goal.
